Yo what is this AMAZING cluster of felines?

Scribble87: Its called Net art.

Guest: ???

Scribble87: Net art or Internet Art is digital artworks is created with the internet and shared on the internet. By not using a traditional gallery space net arties can reach a wider audi ence via the internet. Net art can also be interactive. An artist can choose whether the art reacts to the movement of the mouse or using Gifs. Net art can consist of many different subjects such as photography manipulation, repetition of one or more images, and a cluster of different ideas put into one tag,net art can literally be anything.

Guest: Thanks Scribble87! that was a purr-fect explenashion

Scribble87: No dude just no -_-

Guest: Cant you be Paw-sitie? XD

Scribble87: Its to early on a Caturday.
